Stirling Profile

Stirling is a small city in central Scotland and on the edge of the Scottish Highlands, famous for its history, medieval castle and the nearby Wallace monument. On the edge of town is Stirling University's campus where more than 2,000 international students study.

In recent years the Friends International team, including a strong team of volunteers, have run Global Café on campus in the university chaplaincy, Bible studies, English conversation classes, local link (Friends International's hospitality scheme) and occasional trips.

Friends International is seeking to recruit a new Team Leader for Stirling to work with the Stirling Branch to fulfil Friends International's mission; to work with the church to communicate the good news of Jesus to international students in both word and deed and in whole life cross-cultural discipleship.

Specific responsibilities include:

- Building relationships and sharing faith with international students.
- Leading the team of volunteers to deliver international student ministry in Stirling.
- Build on the strong foundations of previous ministry, relating to university staff and being a positive presence on and off campus.
- Developing new ideas to engage a new generation of volunteers and reach out to international students.

(To be read in association with the more general Friends International Apprentice Staff Worker and Staff Worker job descriptions).
