*A home to live in,
a team to belong to*

Full time or part time hospitality position - open to a couple or single person

Salary Residential 25+ hours Couples welcome

Residential Duty Manager

Thornleigh Christian Hotel is a place people return to year after year. We offer the very best in Christian hospitality - warm welcomes, memorable meals and genuine fellowship.

Most of our staff have been with us for years. Guests call it their second home. We pride ourselves on delivering 5-star service in a relaxed friendly atmosphere.

We are looking for someone happy to turn their hand to any area of the hotel as the business requires. A true all-rounder who takes pleasure in getting things right. This is a hands on role within a close knit team. The hotel operates seven days a week and more or less all year round including Christmas and New Year. We offer themed breaks mid week and have a busy weekend diary with church groups.

The role includes emergency overnight phone cover and fire alarm responsibilities on a rota basis with the Resident Hotel Manager. On site accommodation is therefore part of the package.

What's included..
Private studio flat	Utility bills covered	Parking and storage
Meals	Laundry facilities	Wildlife garden
Monthly salary	Holiday pay/Pension contributions	WIFI/TV

We are looking for..

- A person to work alongside the Resident Hotel Manager
- A happy smiley disposition. A can-do attitude and a willingness to learn
- Previous experience in Christian hospitality - not essential
- This position is not just a job - it's a calling - the more you immerse yourself in the life of Thornleigh - the greater the satisfaction.
- First Aid training, Fire Warden training, Food Hygiene training will be offered if not already holders.
